

Occupations with “good” employment prospects in Ontario communities

January 2006

This report is compiled from the National Labour Market System of the Service Canada. It provides information on detailed occupations having ‘good’ immediate job prospects in local labour markets in Ontario. An occupation is considered to have ‘good’ employment potential if, in the short term, it is expected that there will be employment opportunities in the local labour market for qualified workers in the occupational group. The list is organized by community.

Some of the occupations most frequently categorised as having good employment potential in communities across Ontario are as follows:

- Registered nurses
- Truck drivers
- Carpenters
- Licensed practical nurses
- Pharmacists
- Bricklayers
- Physiotherapists
- Industrial electricians
- Welders and related machine operators
- Construction millwrights and industrial mechanics
